Maryann Thompson

➡➡ Where does the home end and nature begin? The lines are beautifully blurred in Maryann Thompson's organic designs. Built with energy-efficient materials, her kitchens flow seamlessly into the other living spaces, and invite the world outside in.

14 HILLSIDE AVE., CAMBRIDGE, 617-491-4144, MARYANNTHOMPSON.COM.

countertops CUMAR

Designers and homeowners alike are drawn to this Everett showroom for its smoothly honed slabs of granite and marble—not to mention limestone and quartz—in unexpected colors and soothing neutrals. Sourced worldwide by owner Angelo Cubi, Cumar's stock graces the reception desks of luxury hotels as well as countless Boston kitchens and baths.

69 Norman St., Everett, 617-389-7818, cumar.com.

tabletop BLISS

➡ Owner Panamai Manadee believes that setting a perfectly dressed table is akin to styling a killer outfit. And indeed, here fine china in chic patterns—e.g., Bernardaud's Japanese-inspired birds perched on gold branches—mingles with urbane accessories like highly polished steel citrus baskets from Alessi and Kartell's whimsical gnome side tables. The resulting aesthetic is eclectic yet sophisticated, and suitable for both dinner parties and everyday dining.
